

E.1 / PAPER 1 / QUESTION 1

28 October 2020 / TZ0 / HL Paper 1 / original Q40 / 8820-6501

1. The Rutherford-Geiger-Marsden experiment shows that
- A. alpha particles do not obey Coulomb's law.
 - B. there is a fixed nuclear radius for each nucleus.
 - C. a large proportion of alpha particles are undeflected.
 - D. the Bohr model of the hydrogen atom is confirmed.
-